Poem for Msgr. Bruce Dreier

Four years ago I met a man who smiled at me, and I knew at once that the smile was to welcome me.

I entered my room I saw a card. I read with curiosity "you are welcome" on the card.

After morning Mass the next day, I went for breakfast. Here I was in the kitchen looking for my breakfast—I opened the drawer in silence, and all of a sudden there stepped in a huge figure in silence. I turned around and smiled at him truculently. He figured out my problem and remarked gutturally, "May I show you around the kitchen, Monsignor?" I replied, "I will be glad if you do Monsignor."

My admiration of his capabilities attracted me to him. His firmness in taking decisions caught me by surprise.

His recreation was watering the garden. I took time off to water the garden. I was taught the act of resignation. It was with Msgr. Bruce I understood the act of resignation.

The last day he left the rectory, here came Msgr. Bob Mc Elroy to the rectory.

The signal was not clear, any questions were not clear.

The happy birthday song was recorded on August 3rd. Request for intensive prayers were made by Fr. Obet on August 3rd.

I met the "thank you" smile on his sick bed only to hear on August 10th that the Mighty (Fr. Bruce) had passed away on his sick bed.

"What is life if full of care nothing but to stand and stare:

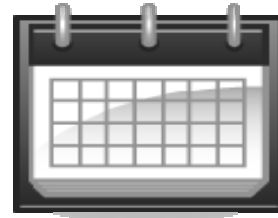

Sleep well Msgr. Bruce. May the angels lead the way Msgr. Bruce. May your large heart reward you Msgr. Bruce.

Thank you for all you did for me and my Parish Church,
St. Theresa's Akaeze Ebony State Nigeria

Adie Msgr. Bruce
Adie A good man"

Feeding our Hungers

The first reading and the gospel today focus on God's response to our hungers. The Franciscan approach to life includes a sense that there is an abundance of everything we need. The question is whether we will share what is given to us. We might ask ourselves, "For what am I hungering? Where is there an emptiness, an aching in my life?" What might God be saying to me through this feeling? And in terms of my relationships with others, "Who is hungry around me? Is there a family member, colleague or friend who would delight in a phone call or a visit?" Am I willing to go out of my way to fulfill someone else's hunger? May the Spirit show us who needs our presence and give us the desire, the time and energy to respond.

Peace, S. Sheral

Maintenance Updates

During the summer, we have had two big maintenance project at St. Roberts.

The radiant heater in the church floor has been leaking. We tried a new procedure recommended by St. Catherine's in Burlingame to deal with the leaks by pumping chemicals into the system. We want to make sure we have heat for the coming winter. The cost of the repair was $6,950.00

The second repair was done in the rectory in Fr. Greene's office. Before his arrival the office was found to have water damage in the floor and a black mold problem. The floor joints had to be repaired and the carpet replaced. The cost was $8,319.00

Total cost for the repairs. $15,269.00
