Dear Friends,

I look over today's readings; but my mind is wandering. I am thinking about our Mary's Widows lunch at the West Coast Cafe on July 24th. We had asked Father Nnanna to join us as he had the previous month. Father, with his dazzling smile, was his usual cheerful, enthusiastic self. He was right at home surrounded by 23 merry widows. When it was time to leave, Father Nnanna gave me a hug and thanked me for inviting him. I hugged him back and thanked him for coming.

As it turned out, Mary's Widows, had the honor of being with Father Nnanna at his "last supper". Father Nnanna had left his earthly body and was now back home in heaven. We will greatly miss Father Nnanna; but not nearly as much as the many people in Nigeria whom he so lovingly served.

Most appropriately, in today's gospel, Jesus says to His disciples: "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom." Father Nnanna's whole existence was comprised of giving of himself completely, loving God and loving each person who came into his life. His work here on earth was done. Now his Heavenly Father has taken him home and given him His kingdom.

May you rest in peace, Father Nnanna.

Anna May
