Dear Friends,

Sitting here in Gene's big blue chair, sipping coconut macadamia tea, I visualize Jesus walking along the shore. He encounters Simon and his brother Andrew and invites them to come follow Him. He walks a bit farther; sees James and his brother John; and also invites them to follow Him. Without hesitation, these four men drop what they are doing and follow Jesus.

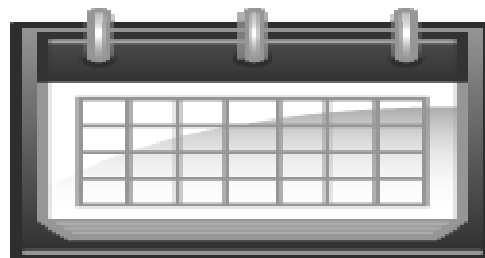

God created us so that we might live in a relationship of friendship with Him. He seeks us out; offers us His love and welcomes us, saying: "I have called you by name; you are Mine. You are precious in My eyes and I love you." In the days He walked the earth, Jesus had a personal relationship with each of His followers. They weren't just His followers; they were His forever friends. This is what God wants us to be – His forever friends. As His first friends actively spent every day with Jesus, so can we. All we need do is say "Yes" to His invitation and be aware that He is always with us. As we go through each day, we can talk with Jesus as we would talk to our best friend. We can ask Him to help us. We can tell Him about people who need our prayers and ask Him to help them. When we think about those we love whom He has brought into our lives, we can thank Him for them and for all that He gives to us. He never tires of hearing us say: "Thank You".

If, up until now, we have kept Jesus at a distance, this could be our time to step forward; to choose Him as He has chosen us. He will receive us with open arms. Each day, we can spend some time being still in Jesus' presence. Know that He is here, gently gazing upon us and loving us. In the silence of our heart, if we but listen, He speaks to us.

Let our forever friendship with Jesus begin!

Anna May
