Luke 10:25-37

26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied.
"How do you read it?"

27 He answered: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Dear parishioners and friends of St. Roberts,

You are strong.

Whatever this crazy thing called Life throws at you, you can get through it.

It may knock you down in ways but there's always a ladder of opportunity waiting for you to climb up higher than before.

Sometimes things have to get worse before they can get better.

Laura Story's song entitled "Blessings" says:

Cause what if your blessings come through raindrops?

What if Your healing comes through tears?

And what if the thousand sleepless nights

Are what it takes to know You're near?

What if my greatest disappointments

Or the aching of this life

Is the revealing of a greater thirst this world

can't satisfy

And what if trials of this life

The rain, the storms, the hardest nights

Are Your mercies in disguise?

Never give up!

Fly high this July,

Fr. Arnold.

First of all, no words are enough to express my gratitude to Fr. Stewart for covering some of the Masses while Fr. Boie was away. I was deeply touched that he offered to celebrate the Monday morning Mass so I could do my "St. Joseph meditation"(sweet dreams) on my day off. After all, he is a retired priest who earned the right to longer sleep after his countless years of service. It must have been quite a sacrifice to wake up early, fight the morning commute from downtown San Francisco so that his brother priest, who is far from being retired, can enjoy a devotion to our lady of pillow (longer sleep). Much as Gracias, Fr. Stewart!

A big thanks to parishioner Christine Devlin who responded to my frantic call to provide the music for the 7:30a.m. and 9:30a.m. Masses last Sunday. Getting a musician is as difficult as getting a priest. With Fr. Boie being away, I had to say all 3 Sunday morning masses. And whenever GP, our music director, has an emergency and is not available, I have to either find somebody to play the piano, or a priest to celebrate the Mass so I could play the piano myself. Thankfully, Christine came to the rescue, and did it pro bono. With her big, kind and generous heart she exclaimed: "this is all for the glory of God." Bless your heart, Christine and thank you so much!
