Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

Someone said that -

If you marry the right person, every day is Valentine's Day.

Marry the wrong person, every day is Martyrs Day.

Marry a lazy person, every day is Labor Day.

Marry a rich person every day is New Year's Day.

Marry an immature person, every day would seem like Children's Day.

Marry a cheater or liar, every day will become April Fool's Day.

And if you don't get married, every day is Independence Day!

Marriage is the only school where you get the Certificate before you start. It is a school you have to attend every day. Be reminded that you are just a student not the principal. Your spouse is your classmate, and God is your principal. If you find out something in your classmate (spouse) that you do not appreciate, remember, your classmate is also just a student, not a graduate. God is not finished with him or her yet. To be loved is a good thing, but to love is the greatest privilege of them all.

Marriage is a place of love, so love your spouse.

Fill the world with love!

Fr. Arnold Zamora

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

This Sunday is Superbowl Sunday, with the Philadelphia Eagles facing the Kansas Chiefs. More importantly, we celebrated World Marriage Day. Let's pray for all the married couples in our parish that they will also be true to their vows, "for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, till death do us part."
