Dear St. Robert's parishioners and friends,

"There are always good things that come out in the middle of wrong situations.

GOD has never failed to make surprises when we think everything has turned out into a sorry mess.

He has a sure way of painting colors out of ashes and a beautiful way of turning good sounds out of broken melodies."

Be filled with God's blessing and be a blessing to others!

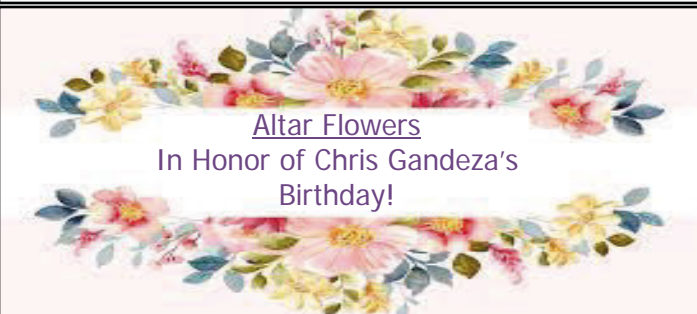

-Fr. Arnold

1. Almost 400 Filipino priests based in the US attended the 4th National Association of Filipino Priests (NAFP) last week in the New York-New Jersey area. Twenty-one Filipino priests came from the Archdiocese of San Francisco, including myself. It was my privilege to compose the Theme Song "One In Christ - Kaisa kay Kristo" together with internationally known Liturgical Composer and OCP artist Fr. Ricky Manalo.

2. In addition to the first three Inquirers, Christina Bustos, Justin Gauthier, and Dora Lacayo, who joined our OCIA program (formerly RCIA), we have 3 additional candidates: Nate Riley, Julian Godin, and Melissa Acosta. With great joy, we welcome you to the journey, and may Jesus be your strength.

3. Thank you for donating your old eyeglasses. In the church vestibule, you will find a box where you can drop eyeglasses you no longer use. You will be surprised that many out there are in need of eyeglasses and appreciative of your kindness. Thanks to Mario Benavente and the Lions Club for this initiative and for giving us the opportunity to be a part of Christ's mission of "giving sight to the blind."
