Things you may want to know this week

- 1. 50 priests from various dioceses in the United States attended our annual reunion this last week here in the San Francisco Bay Area. Some of those priests include the Papal Nuncio to Spain and Archbishop Barney Auza, who presided our opening Eucharistic Celebration at Epiphany Church. On behalf of our group called Paring Bol-anon, I would like to thank St. Robert's parish for welcoming them. A special thanks to our In-Betweeners, Men's Club and Fil-Am Group who provided breakfast for two days and a lunch.
- 2. Saturday July 31, 2021, The Filipino Ministry of the Archdiocese celebrates the 500 years of Christianity in the Philippines with conference. Titled "A Journey of Faith", the conference features talks from Bishop Oscar Solis (Salt Lake City), Bishop Pablo David (President of the Catholic Bishops of the Philippines), Fr. Ricky Manalo (famous Liturgical Composer) and many more. A concelebrated mass will follow after the conference presided by Archbishop Cordileone.
- 3. Pray for the soul of Kathy Gallagher, mother of our 6th grade teacher, Noreen McCullagh. Kathy was just 70 years old. May her soul rest in peace. I will be presiding the funeral mass tomorrow at Holy Name Church in San Francisco at 11:00 AM.
- 4. Sr. Sheral Marshall will be moving to Santa Maria this September and hence will not be working with us anymore. She is a great loss to our parish and we sincerely thank her for almost 20 years of fruitful service here at St. Robert's. Read her message below

You can't change what people say about you. But, you can change how it affects you.

Don't let them bring you down.

GOD has always something special for you.

GOD is the author of life and composer of hope.

HE is all we need.

Carry on!
