St. Robert's Parish Celebrates 50 Years

2008

This photo, taken in the 1930's, shows San Bruno being developed at a steady pace. Development during this period mostly took place near Uncle Tom's Cabin, which is the tree-filled area (center) where San Mateo Avenue meets El Camino Real. After World War II most development took place mostly to the west (left) of this photo. Tanforan race track can be seen at the top.

Second Sunday of Easter

Dear Parishioners,

In the Gospel of John this week, Jesus said, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." Jesus was asking each of us to venture out and spread the good news in the same way he was sent by the Father to spread his message. The question can then be posed, "In the world today, how are we being sent out to spread the peace of God?"

Three months ago, my son and I traveled to Mississippi with Sister Sheral to aid families who had lost their homes to Hurricane Katrina. My first impression of the area was shock at the devastation still around after two years. There were blocks with only foundations where houses once stood. However, in the midst of devastation, I witnessed people who were spreading the peace of God.

When we first arrived at Saint Ann's Parish in Lizana, there were over one hundred volunteers who had traveled from all over the United States to help families they had never met. I felt the same amazement the next day as we waited in a library that had been turned into an operation center for volunteers. Some of the volunteers were residing with us in Lizana but many were housed in other local areas. As I looked around the room, I realized the average age was between fifteen and twenty. Many of the adults were the chaperones for trips of younger students in high school and college who willingly spent their Christmas vacation helping families they did not even know. The experience was eloquently stated by the mayor of Pass Christian at a Saturday night dinner for the volunteers. Hurricane Katrina brought destruction to the city of Pass Christian, but it additionally brought a sense of hope for the future of our country in the number of young volunteers who have traveled to Pass Christian in order to help the community rebuild. These young adults are living testaments that the message of Jesus is still alive today. It causes us to reflect on where Jesus is sending each of us.

LIVING THE LITURGY

Thank you!

My heart is filled with gratitude this Easter Week. There were so many moving experiences during the Triduum, the fruit of lots of love as well as time and energy on the part of so many of you. The celebrants touched our minds and hearts; the lectors were clear and strong; the choir and cantors, inspiring; the Eucharistic ministers, welcoming and attentive; the servers, alert and focused. The Altar of Repose for Holy Thursday was lovely as was the church, thanks to Tom Dachauer, Bruce Chester and crew, Lilo Quintana and those who helped clean and decorate; the new banners are the loving work of Una Uniacke. Thanks to all of you who brought cala lilies and orchids and to you who donated for the Easter lilies. The Passion Play on Good Friday had several people in tears as our young people demonstrated that they really understand what Jesus' suffering and dying means; many thanks to them, Ben Baldonado, Bob Baker and all who helped. The passing of the cross overhead reminded us that none of us can carry the cross alone; we have to help each other. A group of parishioners gave a seated woman the opportunity to touch the cross by lowering it for her. Holy Saturday was wonderful as we brought the light of Christ into the darkened church and heard the stories of our salvation. Many thanks to the RCIA team for their ministry of preparing eight adults for baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. May we remember that we've all renewed our baptismal promises to follow Jesus' gospel in our daily lives! Easter Sunday was inspiring with large crowds and folks who stayed until the very end, though they and their children were standing the whole time.

If you don't yet feel the joy of Resurrection, here is a reflection for you: "The process of earth's greening after a long winter reminds me of our spiritual 'greening,' the inner transformation and rebirthing that comes after we've had a long winter spell of the spirit...It may be a painstakingly slow process, a tiny bit of life gradually weaving through the pain and questions...Sometimes rising from the dead takes a long, slow greening time. It is my hope that you will trust the resurrection of your spirit, believe that joy and new life will come for you, even though it may not be there for you now." Joyce Rupp, Out of the Ordinary, p. 90

Easter season lasts 50 days and we'd like to keep the church beautiful as long as possible. If your cala lilies or orchids are blooming, we'd be happy to have them add color and magnificence to the church! Please bring them to the rectory or with you to church. Thank you.

Fr. Emmanuel will be sharing his experiences with the adult religious education group this Tuesday at 9:15 am in Mary's Chapel. You're most welcome to join us. May the joy of Jesus' rising to new life bring smiles to our faces and deeper hope to our hearts! -Peace, S. Sheral

Nets Save Lives

Thank you to everyone who contributed so generously to the anti-malaria bed nets. This weekend we received $1,423.95 which brings our total to $14,271.00. If you haven't yet turned in your blue envelope, please do so THIS WEEKEND. We'd like to send our parish check to Nothing But Nets soon.

As a Parish Community we pray ...
For the people of God. May we come to Jesus; ask His forgiveness and experience His divine mercy and love. May we place our trust in Him.

We continue to ask each week that parishioners pray for the chronically ill of our parish. If you have a friend or loved one in need of our parish prayers please call the Rectory at 589-2800.

This week we pray for:
Patsy Riley and Aldo Alchera

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

The most challenging and important task we have is our spiritual development. We are here to be in a permanent and abiding communion with our God. We are drawn to a quiet, receptive place where we can be conscious of God's communication to us as Beloved Friend. In the place of God's presence, a deep happiness sets in even when life is hard. To experience this, come to Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, following the 8:30 am Mass and continuing until Benediction at 10:00 am, on Saturday, April 5th.

Adult Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated on Pentecost Sunday, May 11th, in San Francisco. If you know of any adults who would like to prepare and receive this sacrament, please contact Deacon Rusty Duffey as soon as possible.
