SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the rectory in case of serious illness and before surgery and hospital care.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

High school students call the Religious Education Office. Adult confirmation is available on an individual basis. Please contact the rectory to make arrangements.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

There is a period of preparation for the celebration of this Sacrament. Parents are required to attend a Pre-Baptismal class. Please contact the rectory in advance.

SACRAMENT OF EUCHARIST

Vigil Mass 4:30 pm (Saturday)

Sundays: 7:30 am, 9:30 am, 11:30 am and 5:00 pm

Holy Days: Please consult weekly bulletin.

Weekdays: Masses are on Monday, Tuesday and Friday at 6:30 a.m. and Monday through Saturday at 8:30 a.m. Communion Services are held Wednesday and Thursday at 6:30 a.m.

Communion for the Sick

If there is someone ill in your family or recovering from surgery or chemotherapy who is unable to come to Mass, please call Sister Patricia at 589-0104 and she will ask someone to bring Holy Communion. Or contact S. Sheral at 589-2800 about the option of bringing your family member Communion yourself. There is a very simple procedure to be followed and either of us will be happy to go through it with you.

SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

Saturday: 3:30 pm to 4:15 pm or call 589-2800 to make an appointment.

ADVENT COMMUNAL PENANCE SERVICE

During our spiritual journey, we often fall. Falls, great and small, can and do offer us an opportunity to grow, provided we are sincerely repentant. Jesus says to each of us: "Come to Me all who are heavily burdened, I will refresh you." We are invited to confess our sins, be reconciled with God and begin life anew on:

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15TH, AT 7:30PM.

Dear Parishioners,

Snuggly bundled in a sweater and a jacket, I sit on our deck with Gene wearing his short-sleeve shirt. He is right – It is a beautiful day. Between sips of mango tea, we share with each other what we were doing on this day, 67 years ago.

GENE: We heard of the bombing of Pearl Harbor when my family and I returned home from Mass. My first thought was: “How soon could I get into the service?” I wasn't quite old enough – only 17 – but felt qualified because I had had four years of R.O.T.C. training at Cretin, a Christian Brothers Military High School. The motto for guys my age was: “Gung Ho; Let's go!” When, at last, I hit the age of 18, I went to a government building in downtown St. Paul, where each of the branches of the service was recruiting. I got in the line for the Army Air Force. Three of my friends and I were inducted on November 6, 1942. I was trained to be a Radio Operator, a Telephone Operator and a Cryptographer. On Christmas Eve of 1944, we landed on the Island of Tinian in the South Pacific. There were times on the beach when I was shot at by Japanese snipers but I was too young and foolhardy to be scared.

ANNA MAY: It was December 7th, the second Sunday afternoon in Advent. My family and I were sitting in the darkened Coliseum Theater on 9th and Clement in San Francisco. In the midst of an exciting black and white Western, the projector suddenly stopped rolling; the lights went on and the theater manager appeared from behind the screen. He solemnly told us that the Japanese had just bombed Pearl Harbor. I was a terrified nine year old. “Would San Francisco be next?” We headed for the safety of our home.

I will never forget the many frightening nights when the air raid siren blasted us awake. Our Mom and Dad quickly herded us downstairs to our kitchen, where we huddled close together under the table. It was pitch black! My Mom handed each of us a Hershey bar and my Dad headed out the door wearing his air raid warden helmet and carrying a flashlight. What a relief it was when the 'all clear' siren sounded and Dad (our hero) smilingly walked through our front door. These were very scary times.

Today is the second Sunday of Advent and once again Americans are feeling fearful and dealing with numerous challenges. Today's First Reading from Isaiah tells us: “Like a shepherd He feeds His flock; in His arms He gathers the lambs carrying them in His bosom, and leading the ewes with care.” We are living in an Advent of hope – a time to place our trust in God for He is with us!

May God bless and comfort each of you –

Gene and Anna Ma

LOOKING FOR A MASS

While you are away during the the holidays check www.masstimes.org for Mass schedule in other cities.

Anointing of the Sick --- December 14th

Is any among you sick? Let him call for the presbyters of the church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith will save the sick man and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins he will be forgiven" James 5:14-15

Sunday, December 14, we as a parish will celebrate the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick during the 11:30 Liturgy. This sacred anointing of the sick was instituted by Christ our Lord as a true and proper sacrament of the New Testament. Saint James encouraged his followers to pay special attention to those sick among them. We, today, are following his advice and our priests will anoint and pray for all in need of healing.

What better Christmas gift to give to your ailing or aging relatives than to bring them to Saint Robert's Sunday morning to receive this very special Sacrament of the Sick.

GIFTS FOR THE HOMEBOUND:

Let us bring Jesus' love to our sisters and brothers who are homebound or in nursing facilities due to serious illness or advanced years. During this Advent, as we have in the past, we ask that you place gifts for them in the baskets on our altar steps. Some suggestions are: white knee socks, lap robes, slippers, robes, dusters, nightgowns, sweaters, pajamas, a note of encouragement. The only requisite is that your gifts be new, not used, and unwrapped. Knowing that someone does care, will give joy and hope to these precious members of our Parish Family.

Living the Liturgy

Prepare the Way

This weekend, we hear glorious passages of scripture: "Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!" The Isaiah passage proclaims to the Israelites that their time of exile is ended and that the God who has always been with them will again be evident because of their change of heart. Perhaps, you remember the bumper sticker from years ago which read, "If God seems far away, guess who moved."

"According to God's promise we await a new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells." We rarely hear from any of the letters of Peter, but in this passage his community is reminding the people that Jesus will return, though it may seem as though he is taking his time. [The early Christians thought he would return during their lifetime.] The important thing is that they (and we) use this time of waiting to open ourselves to God's promptings so we will have nothing to fear when that day comes. November's daily prayers for the dead brought back memories of my parents; perhaps, it did the same for you. I remembered their faithfulness to following the gospel and their passing on to us, their daughters, their active concern for others.

"One mightier than I is coming after me." John the Baptist, we recall from this gospel or The Messiah or Godspell, comes out of the desert, strangely dressed and announcing that the One they had been awaiting was now here. He prepares the way for the Lord, the same mission we each have as baptized Christians. Which "valleys" in my own life need to be filled in? What "mountains" need to be made low? Though Advent is distinct from Lent, both seasons involve a long, gentle look at ourselves and a willingness to change. Our reconciliation service Monday the 15th at 7:30 pm is a great opportunity to open ourselves to God's healing touch so we can confess our wrongdoing and start over again. What in my life is blocking the coming of Jesus more fully into my heart, my attitudes, my actions? Reconciliation is a wonderful way to get in touch with whatever that may be. [If it's been a while since you went to confession, contact me and I'll be happy to meet with you or give you a helpful article to read.]

It'll help you to remember the preparation aspect of this season if you wait a bit to jump into Christmas! Wear purple instead of red and green, light a candle for each week of Advent even if you don't have greens around it, and take some time to read over the Sunday readings, cited in the bulletin, before you come to Mass. It will make a difference.

This week holds several important days: the anniversary of Pearl Harbor, the feast of the Immaculate Conception on Monday, the 60th anniversary of the Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations on Wednesday, and the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe on Friday. Let us pray for all who died in the Second World War and in all the wars, declared and undeclared, going on in Zimbabwe, Congo, the Gaza, and Somalia. Let us rejoice as North Americans as we celebrate the patronage of Our Lady in both of these feasts through which God's mercy is present.

Please take a moment after Mass today to taste the Fair Trade coffee the Social Concerns group is selling the following weekend. Almost 50% of the price goes to the Guatemalan and Mexican farming families who raise, roast, grind and package the beans. We will also have Fair Trade chocolate for sale.

Peace, S. Sheral
