Dear Parishioners,

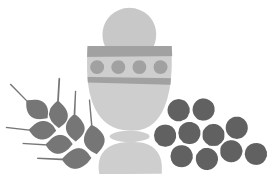

In today's Gospel Jesus invites the apostles and us to, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while". So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.. We have an invitation from Christ to take a vacation or a retreat with him also.

However, if you continue to read the gospel, you find that Jesus and the apostles didn't get their time off because a vast crowd appeared and his heart was moved with pity for them. Sometimes our desire for peace, quiet, rest and relaxation doesn't turn out as we had planned. There is an old saying, "We make plans, God laughs".

I hope your plans and expectations for this summer are being met. I pray that you are finding rest and relaxation from your hectic schedules. I hope also that you have time to reflect upon and renew your relationship with God. May your distractions be few as you attempt to rest a while with Christ, family and friends.

Deacon Duffey

Please note: Fr. Nnanna says that back home if your cell phone goes off in church you have to bring two bags of cement to the church as a penance.

Communion for the Sick

If there is someone ill in your family or recovering from surgery or chemotherapy who is unable to come to Mass, please call Sister Patricia at 589-0104 and she will ask someone to bring Holy Communion. Or contact Sr. Sheral about the option of bringing your family member Communion yourself. There is a very simple procedure to be followed and either of us will be happy to go through it with you.

Living the Liturgy

Our Good Shepherd

Today's liturgy includes the 23rd Psalm, the one we often hear at funerals because of its consoling nature. As shepherds guide their sheep, so do leaders of nations or businesses, schools or parishes or families guide those in their group. If I have one of these positions of leadership, how do I use my authority? Do I see my authority as service, leading those "under" me with compassion as Jesus would? Do I teach them the skills and foster their abilities so that aspects of my leadership become less necessary? In my own life, who has been a great model, a good shepherd for me? How about thanking that person in the coming week?

Peace, S. Sherab

Love of Neighbor

In the midst of our own difficulties in this country, the Holy Father reminds us that we mustn't forget the members of our global human family, who have been recently pushed from poverty into destitution: "In the search for solutions to the current economic crisis, development aid for poor countries must be considered a valid means of creating wealth for all. What aid program is there that can hold out such significant growth prospects — even from the point of view of the world economy — as the support of populations that are still in the initial or early phases of economic development? From this perspective, more economically developed nations should do all they can to allocate larger portions of their gross domestic product to development aid, thus respecting the obligations that the international community has undertaken in this regard."

-Pope Benedict XVI, Charity in Truth (Caritas in Veritate) July 7, 2009

Pro-Life Group

Our parish pro-life group is meeting this Monday, the July 27th, in Mary's Chapel from 7 to 8:30 pm. Please come to find out how you can be involved, or call Mary Nunnery at 588-6349 for more information.

National Night Out

Our San Bruno Police Department is hosting a gathering from 5 to 7 pm at their station near San Bruno BART station department on Tuesday, August 4 featuring a neighborhood watch presentation, national night out presentation, and comments by Chief of Police Neil Telford. Everyone is welcome.

Flowers, anyone?

If anyone would like to adorn the church with flowers from your garden, please bring them with you to Mass on the weekend or on Tuesday or Friday mornings. Those are the days on which we arrange them. Thank you very much.

THE FESTIVAL IS COMING "City by the Bay" September 18th-20th

Plans are under way for this year's annual parish festival. The BBQ and Food Booth and Fr. Bruce's famous garlic fries are in need of your help. Several people are needed to work in these very popular booths and everyone from the parish is welcome to help. Most shifts are for 2 hours but you can work for as many hours/days as you would like. If you would like to help in any of these booths or can help in any way, please contact Louise and Ray Downs or Jeff and Raquel Downs at noniepapadowns@att.net or by phone at (650) 355-1927.
