My Dear Friends,

Deafness is one of the worst handicaps that can affect a person. And one of the tragic aspects of deafness is that it arouses little sympathy in others. Yes, strange it may seem, we will spontaneously feel a great compassion for the blind and go out of our way to help them, and at the same time find it comical or even annoying, a person who is merely hard of hearing. Yet in some respects, the predicament of the deaf is much worse. While the blind are able to have normal social interaction with others through conversation, attending talks, listening to the radio, the deaf are almost completely cut off from social life. In order to imagine something of their misery, we need only remember how frustrated we feel when we are watching an interesting film and the sound goes dead. Right then and there the story ceases to make sense. We see the players laughing, weeping, fighting and we have no idea why. Such is the plight of the deaf: they are in the hustle and bustle of everyday life, yet they have no part in it. They are clueless as to what is going on in the world.

The problem is deafness is not only a physical disability. There is also such a thing as spiritual deafness. When we are deaf to God's word, either by involuntary or willful carelessness, we become like those physically deaf: immersed in God's world, yet we understand a little of what is going on. We see people being born and people dying, we see a lot of pain and heartaches, and we see everywhere violence and crime, disappointment and failure, broken homes and broken lives, and we do not know why. We also see some people very happy, some beautiful and productive lives, some people aging gracefully, some people and parish communities moving on after their loved ones have passed away, and we do not see why. Indeed, spiritual deafness is also a great misfortune.

Listening only to what we want to hear makes us spiritually deaf. This also limits our ability to speak the truth and can therefore render us mute. The problems of society and of the world are mostly caused by people's prejudices and biases against each other. This current debate about health care reform can be distorted by partisan politics and by the vested interests of certain sectors of society. What may be lost is the fact that access to health care is a human right, a universal right. In their website, www.usccb.org, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops is offering the following insights as guides in the debate on health care reform:

- a truly universal health policy with respect for human life and dignity;
- access for all with special concern for the poor and inclusion of legal immigrants;
- pursuing the common good and preserving pluralism including freedom of conscience and variety of options; and
- restraining costs and applying them equitably across the spectrum of payers.

If we want to make a difference in this world, as what our government leaders and politicians would like to say and do, we must approach the issues that affect us as human beings not with eyes that see only what is external but with God's own vision, which sees the dignity and honor of everyone, especially that of the poor and the less fortunate.

The gospel this Sunday reminds us that Jesus comes to open the eyes and hearts of all. The healing of the deaf mute in a Gentile territory tells us that Jesus wants everyone to hear the truth and to be able to speak the truth plainly for the sake of the Kingdom. In this Sunday's first reading, Isaiah gives a beautiful image of the kingdom that is to come for the chosen people. This was a messianic prophecy heard by the Israelites while they were in exile in Babylon. We, Christians, have long held that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophecies spoken by Isaiah. The miracle story in Mark's gospel tells us that indeed Jesus ushers in the kingdom through his power to heal. Through the efforts of everyone, governments and communities alike, we want to make this world a reflection of God's kingdom. But we need to understand what is going on in the world around us. The power of Jesus will open our ears so we can listen to the word of God and see everything in the light of the gospel. This saving action of Jesus makes us effective Christians and just like Jesus we can do all things well, thus making our homes, our community, our country, our world a better place to live in.

STEWARDSHIP

Second Collection For Annual Appeal September 12th & 13th

There will be a second collection to assist the parish in covering our assessment to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. Our assessment must be paid whether or not we reach the goal of our Annual Appeal goal. For the 2008 Annual Appeal we fell almost $10,000 short of our goal. The parish had to make up this difference from parish funds.

The parish finance committee reviewed the statistics of the campaign. One critical factor was the number of families who participated by making a pledge or a one time gift. Last year only 360 families out of 2221 registered families. This equates to approximately 16% who participated in the Archbishop's Appeal.

The parish finance council passed a resolution to institute a quarterly second collection to give the opportunity for more families to participate in the Archbishop's Appeal. This year our assessment is $98,400. To date we have received pledges and gifts in the amount of $84,855.26 from 426 families. Please help us to make our assessment this year.

WEEKLY COLLECTION

July 1st to August 30th (goal)	90,450.00
July 1st to August 30th (actual)	82,649.21
7/1/09-6/30/10 Weekly Goal	10,050.00
Collection (actual 8/30)	9,888.41

Thank you for your donation of $4,152.93 to the Mission Appeal and $4,630.70 to our St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Living the Liturgy

The Challenge of Faith

September has arrived, school is back in session, and we're all asking, "Where did the summer go?" And to add to our confusion, the first reading sounds as though it belongs in Advent! The beautiful words of Isaiah are addressed to a people living in fear of being attacked by their enemies, the Babylonians. Salvation will mean a wondrous transformation with all bodily limitations removed, water in the desert in pools and rivers. The reading is chosen to align with the gospel in which Jesus cures a man who can neither hear nor speak.

Jesus is in Gentile territory and the people who must have heard of his reputation, bring the man to him. He kindly takes the man away from the crowd and touches his ears and his tongue, praying, "Be opened!" The man can hear and speak plainly and everyone is amazed. Jesus tells them not to tell anyone, but they cannot help themselves and they proclaim it far and wide. Why does Jesus want it kept quiet? Scripture scholars tell us that Jesus didn't want people to see him as a miracle worker, but to listen to him as he tells of the kingdom of God, his Father. In other gospel passages, he chides some of his disciples, implying that they followed him only to see what wonders he might perform rather than because they believed in him.

Recalling that people with physical ailments were often seen as punished by God for something they or their families had done, this man qualifies as one of "the poor" whom James speaks of in the second reading. The bluntness of James' command, "Show no partiality" should give us believers pause. He is talking about treating the well-to-do and the poor differently, but we could expand his words to include anyone whom we treat differently. So we might ask ourselves, Who do I look down upon? The young person who "dresses funny"? My relative who is gay or lesbian? My co-worker who is divorced and re-married? If we look to the example of Jesus, he is constantly reaching out to those who are considered "less than" others. If we call ourselves Christians, aren't we called to do the same? Peace be to you. Sr. Sheral

Commemorations This Week

As we celebrate Labor Day, we who are employed can offer thanks to God for the blessing of work and pray for so many who are unemployed or underemployed. Even if we're not in a position to help them financially, perhaps we can give our emotional support to those in difficult straits.

The eighth anniversary of 9/11 occurs this Friday. May our thoughts and prayers be with all who have lost loved ones and with parishioners who have family members serving in the military.

FESTIVAL HIGH ROLLER TICKETS
AVAILABLE AFTER ALL MASSES NEXT
WEEKEND, SEPT. 12 & 13. SEE GUS!

AIDS LUNCH –September 9th

The second Wednesday of the month, September 9th, is our donation day. If you can help by providing your favorite dish for up to 12 people that would be great. Please put in a non-returnable container and leave in the little church room in the vestibule of the Church by 9:30 am. Frozen items are acceptable. Thank you for your continued assistance.

RCIA CLASSES HAVE BEGUN

Please contact Deacon Rusty Duffey if you know any adults, over 18, who need the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and/or Confirmation. Also if you know of someone who was baptized in another Christian denomination who is considering joining the Catholic Church, please have them call as well. We will gladly explain what the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is all about.

Consolation Ministry

Saint Robert's Grief Support Group-Sept. 12th

Our next meeting is on September 12th, in the Convent Chapel from 3:00 – 4:15 (before the 4:30 Mass). Anyone who is suffering from the loss, (whether recent or not so recent) of a loved one – spouse, sibling, child, parent, friend or relative is invited to come and pray, share, comfort and be comforted. You are invited to bring a friend or companion as for support and strength if you so wish. God Bless you in your sorrow. Sister Patricia 589 – 0104.

St. Robert's Fil-Am Group to host a Novena for the Feast of San Lorenzo Ruiz de Manila

The Feast of San Lorenzo Ruiz is celebrated on September 27th. In preparation a traditional nine-day novena will be celebrated in family homes from September 17th to September 25th. Please call Dada Gallagher (650) 871-9063 or Encar Sanchez (650) 588-5173 for more information.

DIRECTORY UPDATE

We have scheduled with Lifetouch to be here to take family pictures for the directory on October 9-10, 20-24 and 27-30. We will begin scheduling appointments during the parish festival. Remember you get one free portrait and a free directory per family when you take a picture for the directory. Portraits are expected to be available this Thanksgiving and the directory is expected in February 2010. Please mark your calendars now. Thanks to everyone who signed up to volunteer and who attended our planning meeting.
