Dear Parishioners,

During the past year, we celebrated the Year of the Priests. Pope Benedict asked that we all pray for our priests and, at the same time, pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood. During these same months, we had what some have referred to as the dark night of the Church. The sins of priests and bishops have been written in the headlines and proclaimed on the nightly news broadcasts. The question is what we have learned about ourselves and our Church. Some people laugh at us; some avoid us; others no longer join our community. What have we learned? For me, the words of our former Archbishop, John R. Quinn, have been as source of strength. In an address to priests, he wrote: "What John of the Cross describes as the dark night of the soul has in our time become the dark night of the Church. St. John explains that the dark night is a bewildering experience, it strips away all the visible support. It brings a helpless, sinking feeling. But it is only truly the dark night when it is borne in faith. The believer and the Church who pass through the dark night in faith are led to the loss of everything secondary and to discover that God is not who they thought he was and they are not who they thought they were. It is the discovery that God is beyond everything we can articulate or conceive and it is the experience that we do not control God. The dark night is dark because God is infinite light overwhelming our limited capacities. It is in the experience for the dark night that the believer and the Church come to know that God is all. This dark night of the Church is a divine pedagogy teaching us painfully that we are incredibly poor and utterly dependent on God."

Let us pray for one another.
Sincerely,

Fr. Vincent Ring

Business Card Sunday

Gain New Customers right here in church

Church members want to do business with people they can trust—namely, their fellow parishioners. Advertizing in the bulletin helps parishioners who are business owners reach a very loyal audience. Studies show that 68 percent of households surveyed, when making a choice between two businesses, are inclined to choose the one that advertised in the bulletin. Potential new customers are sitting right next to you.

Next Sunday, we ask that you bring your business card to Mass and place in the offering basket. Please do not put your business card in your offering envelope. A representative from our bulletin printer will contact you regarding advertizing in our weekly bulletin.

Thank you for your consideration.

AS A PARISH COMMUNITY, WE PRAY.... that the leaders and people of all nations respect and protect the life of every human being from the first moment of conception till their final breath is drawn.
