Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate Independence Day on July 4th, we are reminded of the sacrifices of this nation's founding fathers and many others who fought and died for the sake of freedom and liberty. I am certain that these people went through very stressful times. Today, we still live in a very stressful world. This is what many people say. Raising kids, work, endless bills and the lingering effects of the recession, to name a few, are the common causes of stress in everyday living. Day in and day out the news media bombard us with so much bad news. The things that we read in the newspaper convince us that indeed we live in a very stressful world. However, this should not deter us from going on with our life. The gospel today is good news to all of us. The words of Jesus give us hope that there is a bright future ahead of us, if only we listen to him.

We should be happy to hear these words of Jesus: "Come to me all you who labor and are overburdened and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." When Jesus first said these words, his audience was the ordinary and simple people. He called them the little ones. And these little ones were also stressed. They were burdened by the yoke of the hundreds of laws and regulations. For those who could not read the laws, and many of them were illiterate, there was no way they could be faithful in fulfilling the law. This became a heavy burden to them since the religious leaders of that time demanded following the law to the letter. The religious leaders claimed that there was no other way to salvation except to religiously follow those hundreds of laws. Of course, Jesus opposed that kind of wisdom. He offered an alternative way of life, the real wisdom coming from God. Unfortunately, the so-called learned and the wise rejected it. But the simple and ordinary people were open to the wisdom offered by Jesus. Hence, these little ones were able to find rest from their very stressful life.

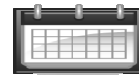

The yoke of Jesus is easy because it is the yoke of love. When a person is filled with love, there is no burden that a loving person cannot carry. Some may say that it is very hard to be faithful to the gospel and so they give up. Before you agree with them and say, "Yeah, it's a heavy burden to witness to the gospel", ask yourself this question, "If you love your work, do you find it hard to do?"

At one time a parishioner shared with me that he really loves watching football, especially when the 49'ers are playing. But when his son joined the children's choir he had to give up watching football on Sundays when the 49'ers are playing because he wants to be with his son at church. Why? Because he loves his son more than the 49'ers. When we do things out of love, there is nothing that we cannot do. And that is the secret to a stress-free life.

Blessings,

Father Obet
