Dear Parishioners,

You probably heard many homilies. Which ones have stuck with you? Close your eyes for a minute and then try to recall one. Today's Gospel reading is of the sower and the seed. They are not short stories like the kind you would find in an anthology or tell as a bedtime tale. Usually quite short, Jesus' parables might be a simple image or description from ordinary life; if they're stories, they often take a surprising twist. But always they offer a comparison between something we know (a seed, banquet, a lost sheep) and something that Jesus wants us to understand (the kingdom of God, the Father's love).

Jesus' parables stick with us because they open our minds and invite us into the story. In a way Jesus himself is the most wondrous parable of all. His life, to quote another book title, is truly The Greatest Story ever told. The whole gospel story presents the gripping drama of the Father who longs to save his children; about his Son whose love moves him to carry out the ultimate rescue mission; about the Holy Spirit who empowered Jesus and now fills and transforms us into the likeness of Christ. Faith in Jesus is God's gift. Faith is also our work to bear the word into understanding and action.

So my bothers and sisters, let us sow the word of our Lord Jesus Christ in every part of us and grow whatever he desires within us and come to know him as our Savior by loving one another each and every day.

God Bless,

Deacon John

From the desk of the Pastor
Parish Pastoral Council

By now you have already met our new Parochial Vicar, Fr. Michael Konopik. Thank you for your warm welcome to him. I have met with him a couple of weeks ago and discuss with him the culture of the parish and he said that he is very eager to get to know the parishioners and become familiar with the parish life here at St. Robert's. Let us support him as he continues his priestly ministry in his second parish assignment.

Pat Cotroneo, our Finance Council chairperson, and Steve West, are stepping down after finishing their term in the Finance Council. Let us all thank them for their generosity and commitment in serving the parish. They have served in the Finance Council for a good number of years and their leadership has been of great help to the current members of the council. Congratulations and thank you so much, Pat and Steve, for a job well done.

At this time too I would like to welcome our new members to the council namely: Joe Ajam, Bob Hulsman and Helen O'Brien. With their background and qualifications, I am certain that they will be of great help to me in overseeing the finances of the parish.

The other members of the council who are continuing their terms are: Maureen Huntington, Diane Isola and Ana Kimoto. Margot Wright, our new principal, is an ex-officio member of the council.

Blessings,

Father Obet
