Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we focus on one of the most powerful gifts of our faith, the Eucharist. I don't know if you've noticed that even the youngest members of our community often reach for the host as the parent is receiving. Is it only that they want what Mom or Dad has or might they on some deeper level sense that this isn't just bread which is being cradled so lovingly? They are so newly from the hand of God perhaps, that bond is still strong!

If you speak to someone who has recently returned from a time away from the Church, you'll find that often it is the Eucharist which draws them back. We are the only faith community in which members can receive the Body and Blood of the Lord daily, if we choose. What a great privilege! When I serve as an extraordinary minister, I am often awed by the reverence evidenced even by the children when they extend their hands for the Eucharist. Sometimes, I recall the fact that we all come to the Lord empty and in need. And so we are filled with the Bread of Life, the Saving Cup which sustains us whatever our journey entails. Then we are sent out to be blessed, broken and given to those who are hungry for acceptance and love.

May we become what we eat.

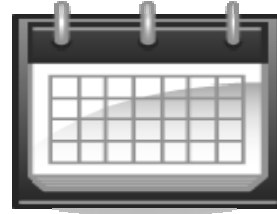

Peace, S. Sheral

Good Luck

2nd Collection for June 23 and 24
Mission Appeal
Diocese of Meru

AS A PARISH COMMUNITY, we pray for the people of God. May we be filled with the firm belief that, as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we truly are partaking of the body and blood of Jesus.

Our sincere sympathy to the families of

Christine Applegate and Shirley Tust

When Someone Is Ill

If you're aware of a parishioner who is homebound, in the hospital or in rehab, please be sure to let Sr. Patricia know. She can be reached at posullivan3@juno.com or at 589-0104. She'd rather hear twice than not at all. Thank you.

Diocese of Meru is located on the Eastern Province of Kenya, Africa. It is one of the 26 Catholic Dioceses in Kenya. The local Ordinary is Rt. Rev. Saleius Mugambi, the 3rd Bishop since the Diocese was born. The Catholic faith was brought to Meru by the Consolata Missionaries from Turin - Italy in 1911. The Diocese of Meru is made up of seven Deaneries. Diocese of Meru had 126 Diocesan priests, 46 religious priest, 25 religious brothers, 299 Religious sisters, 640 catechists, 500 minor Seminarians and 88 major seminarians who are in various major Seminaries in the country. There are total of 55 parishes and several Catholic institutions within the Diocese. A few Diocesan priests serve as 'fidei Donum' in other diocese within the country while a few are outside the country too. One feature to note is that the Equator crosses across the Diocese and about 60% of Diocese is semi-arid.

Generally majority of people hold firm to their faith and therefore are active members of the church despite of the poverty they languish in.

Hope this short information is helpful to you in giving and you have an idea of the Diocese.

Sincerely,
Fr. Patrick G. Nyaga
