Dear Parishioners,

THANK YOU

Just a short note today to thank you for your wonderful welcome to Saint Robert's. It makes me very proud to be your new Pastor and I am very grateful for all the calls, letters, emails and personal meetings welcoming me to such a great parish.

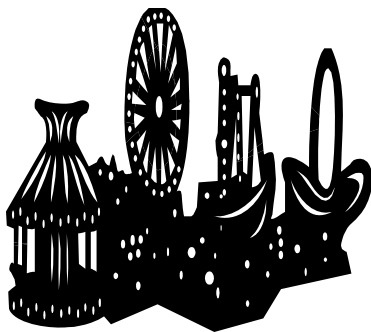

I am so impressed not only by your friendly welcome, but by how active all of you are in the parish and school. It seems like everyone is involved in some activity here. It just proves Saint Robert's reputation as an alive and active parish.

I hope to get to know all of you better in the coming months. I hope you will put up with my attempts to learn your names and roles in our parish.

May God bless you all for your warm welcome and please keep me in your prayers.

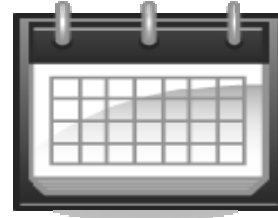

John Greene
