Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!

Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!

With these exhortations, Moses expressed a longing for all of God's people to receive the same Spirit of prophecy that he had been given, and which the Lord had just shared with the 72 elders of Israel. Two of the 72 selected as elders were absent from the main event – not refusing to join, but accepting responsibility for remaining with the camp. Mere geographic separation could not deter the grace conferred on the elders from reaching its intended recipients. Only a willful rejection of that gift could be an effective obstacle to that grace.

From Moses' lips to God's ear, as the saying goes – bestowing on the elders a share of Moses' spirit of prophecy prefigures Baptism, through which God unites people with Christ and bestows on them a share of Christ's prophetic Spirit. Immersed in the Living Word through scripture and lives of service (and empowered by the grace of our Baptism), we, too, can bear God's Word in our hearts and on our lips. May it fill us with joy to embrace the gift and the call, that through word and deed our very lives might become – for each other and for the world – prophetic proclamations of the Gospel, effective witnesses to God's love, and humble instruments of God's grace.

Peace and God Bless. -Fr.Mike

Saint Robert's Women's Guild would like to invite you to:
Our October meeting "Social Mixer" with a Special Guest Speaker

We have a special treat in store for our October Women's Guild meeting. We will pay a tribute to all those that have been impacted by Breast Cancer as well as all other cancers. Also, Michael Pritchard, a nationally acclaimed speaker with a big heart, strong character, and a presentation style that makes him a master will join us and speak on "The Art of Happiness". Michael spoke to our kids in May of this year and was phenomenal! Using clean humor and real-life experiences, Michael educates as he entertains. His professional comedy career has brought him to share the stage with Robin Williams, Jay Leno, and Jerry Seinfeld. He's been featured on the Tonight Show, appeared on an episode of Taxi, was the voice for several Star Wars characters and hosted the Pope's celebration in San Francisco. Michael has devoted himself to youth and now has his 6th Emmy nominated highly acclaimed PBS series for youth, Life Steps and a new book, "Listen to What your Kids Aren't Telling You". Drawing from his background as a probation officer, educator, and comedian, he presents in-depth programs for all ages. His unique ability to reach a vast audience with his gift of humor and wisdom allows him to inspire positive change in schools, the workplace, and communities. He is known as one of America's leading motivational speakers, and featured in Time magazine and on CNN as somebody who's making a difference and initiating positive change in Youth Across America.

It is Breast Cancer Awareness month, so please wear pink!

This meeting is open to all women, so feel free to invite others outside our school/parish.

Due to the expected high numbers, we are asking that you RSVP as soon as possible, but definitely by October 10th, so that we will have plenty of food and space for everyone. We changed the price (see below) for this meeting only.

We would like to put together a slide show of all those special people who we have lost, who are still fighting and for "survivors" of breast cancer as well as all other cancers. If you have any pictures you would like to share, please email to Lori Klingler at partyofsklinglers@yahoo.com
