A Letter from the Bishop of Abakailiki,
Michael Okoro

On behalf of my humble self, the clergy, religious and the entire lay faithful of the Diocese of Abakaliki, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the way you and your flock looked after our priest, son and brother –Monsignor Emanuel Nnanna Egwueze - during his brief stay in your parish, till his admission into eternal life.

The condolence book which Fr. Edward was so kind to bring home with him, testified to the numerous members of the parish who took time off to join in praying for our beloved Monsignor. It is consoling to know that for us Christians, every country is our homeland; for we have numerous brothers and sisters praying for us and with us all over the world. In addition to the spiritual help, you also paid for the funeral as well as the travel expenses.

Monsignor Egwueae has since been confined to mother Earth to await the resurrection and we joined our prayers to yours that his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed may rest in Abraham’s bosom, Amen.

Abakaliki Diocese remains indebted to you and your entire flock and we shall continue to pray for you all—for those who labor in the vineyard of the Lord shall never labor in vain.

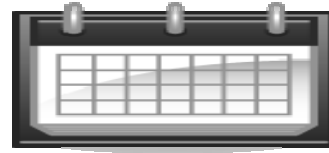

In Union of Prayers,

Michael Okoro
Bishop of Abakaliki

Mass and Healing Liturgy in memory of our Little Ones

Seeking comfort in prayer together, at the Rachel Mourning shrine, we remember our babies who died before, at or after birth. We hold these children gently in our hearts and pray for all of them on Saturday, September 14 at 11 am. Bishop William Justice is the principal celebrant at Holy Cross Cemetery, 1500 Mission Road, Colma. A gathering and light lunch will follow the Mass. For information, please contact the Respect Life Program at 415-614-5570.
