CHOICES

We seldom realize how many choices we really make everyday. Some seem so simple: Should I wear this shirt or that skirt, or should I have soup or a sandwich for lunch.

Other choices are harder. Can I tell my husband or wife how I really feel? Would I risk changing jobs?

Some choices are really difficult. Should I take this treatment for my illness or should I end a bad relationship.

We make little choices everyday. Sometimes we make seemingly impossible choices.

We also need to make choices about our relationship with God. Can we risk making life - giving choices? Do we trust God to bless us and save us.

The reading today asks us to choose to say "Yes" to God and we are promised the gift of life through the power of His spirit.

Fr. John L. Greene

ARCHDIOCESE ANNUAL APPEAL 2014

The Archdiocese has set our income tax for the support of the Archdiocese at $94,300 for 2014. This is $7,000 more than last year. The reason why AAA tax was raised is because our parish income has increased in the last year. I will be sending out a letter in February to all our parishioners asking for your support.
