Dear Parishioners,

Lilies abound in our churches on Easter morning as the Church throughout the world hears the story of the beloved disciple, the ideal believer, who sees the empty tomb and without hesitation believes Jesus is risen. The lilies are losing their luster a week later. The disciples to whom Jesus appears on Easter evening lack lustre, too. They are more like us, struggling with what to believe. Easter is about transformation and action.

Jesus' presence frees his fearful community for faith, joy, and the work of the Spirit - to forgive and to love.

In John's Gospel, to believe is not only to share in the life Jesus receives from God but to be sent from God as Jesus was, to live in the world in the power of the same Spirit. The gift of love and forgiveness which Jesus gives his followers becomes their mission to others.

The risen Easter Jesus breaks through Thomas's doubt as easily as through the community's fear. He comes, invites Thomas to put his fingers in his wounds, and challenges him to believe. Thomas touches Jesus for himself and completes his faith journey. Jesus prays for all of us who must take the word of others as the basis of our faith.

Yet, the word of believers, Jesus insists, can lead others to a personal relationship with him. Life in Jesus' name is as available to us as to the first believers. This experience of Thomas can remind us that Jesus often comes today as mysteriously as he did then to Thomas, through unlikely and unbelievable circumstances in daily living.

God Bless,
Deacon John Meyer
