Dear Friends,

Sitting here, sipping pineapple tea, I admire the bush Gene planted some 30 years ago. It has burst forth with hundreds of yellow daisies. On another sunny day in May, this bush saved Gene. I helplessly watched as he fell backwards off a step into it. My heart momentarily stopped. Then how we laughed as Chris pulled Gene out from the daisies that protectively clung to him.

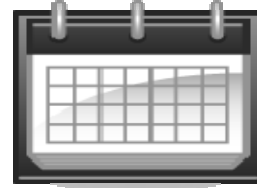

On this May day, the world prays for vocations. God calls each of us to a life of love and service to Him and to His children. Each of us is unique and has a very special vocation – a purpose in God's divine plan that only we can fulfill. Just as Mary was asked and said "Yes" when God called her to be the Mother of His Son, we are asked to say "Yes" when He calls us to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, marriage/parenthood, or to the single life.

Today we also celebrate what is possibly the most challenging (though most loving and rewarding) of all vocations -- that of being a Mother. From the moment a woman discovers that her child lives within her, she is in love with her precious baby. When she thinks that she cannot love even a little bit more, her new-born is placed in her arms. She looks into her baby's beautiful face for the first time. From that moment on, she is totally hooked! A Mom protects, guides, teaches, loves and is there for her child every moment of every day. Without a thought, she would give up her life for her child. A Mother's love is second only to God's love for each of us. I have a Mom who loves like this. Though I can no longer see or touch her, or hear her voice, I know that she is still watching over me. Thank you, Lord, for the precious gift of my Mom.

"Happy Mother's Day, Mom! I love you!"

Anna May

Holy Communion to the Homebound

You have probably noticed that during Mass the celebrant is inviting those bringing Communion to the homebound or hospitals to come up after we've all received Communion. If you have a family member or neighbor who cannot come to Mass, you can either call Sr. Patricia at 589-0104 and ask her to have one of the Eucharistic Ministers bring Communion or you can bring the person Holy Communion yourself. You just need to have a small container, called a pyx, into which the host can be placed. Please see Sr. Sheral or one of the priests before Mass begins.

GIVE ELECTRONICALLY

St. Robert's relies on the financial support of its parishioners and the electronic giving program offers convenience for you and provides much-needed donation consistency for our Parish. To give electronically, visit www.saintroberts.org and click on the link to sign up.
