Happy Easter

The forty days of Lent flew by this year. Each of us chose our own unique way of spending Lent. Now Easter is here and it's time to celebrate.

We celebrate the love of God on the Cross for us, but even more we celebrate the promise and hope of new life that Jesus gives us in His resurrection. The music, the flowers and the joy of Easter all reflect the reality that Life and Love are stronger than the power of death.

The Resurrection gives hope and meaning to our lives and tells us that God is always with us in the times we experience the cross, and the times we experience the joy of his love. He raises us up to live with him in life and in death.

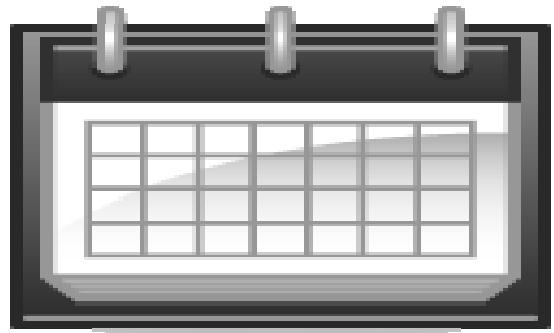

Happy Easter
Fr. John L. Greene

Easter Sacraments Celebrated

Congratulations to JuliAnna Dunning, Mason Martinez and Thio Lan who were Baptized, Confirmed and received First Eucharist during the Easter Vigil. Doug Henry made a Profession of Faith, since he was baptized in another faith tradition. He then received his Confirmation and First Eucharist. Nancy de Ita received her First Communion. Nancy now looks forward to her Confirmation which is scheduled for Pentecost Sunday in San Francisco with Archbishop Cordileone.

A great day of celebration was had by all. Please continue to keep them in your prayers. Special thanks to the RCIA team and teachers: Jim Puchbauer, Eveline Coffman, Mary Bourne, Mary Hile-Nepfel, Ray Colline, and Deacon Rusty Duffey.

Dear St. Robert's Family,

Happy Easter! As the days grow longer and warmer, we see the triumph of light over darkness. The whole world reflects on the beauty and promise of Spring.

It's not by accident that we celebrate the Lord's Resurrection during this beautiful time of the year. We rejoice in the Lord's triumph over death and with faith and hope we proclaim his presence in our lives today.

May God bless all of the members of our Parish this Easter.

*Christ is Risen!
Gratefully,*

*Fr. John L. Greene
Fr. Mike Konopik
Sisters Sheral and Patricia
Deacons John & Rusty
And the Parish Office Staff*

Easter Thanks!

Many thanks to each and every one of you who made our Easter celebration fittingly beautiful for the next 50 days! Thank you to all the musicians, Eucharistic ministers, lectors, liturgy committee, altar servers, ushers, cleaners and decorators, the Marthas (our Altar Society), all who brought flowers for Holy Thursday and donations for flowers for the Easter season. May the readings, songs, scents and beauty of this season fill us with joy.

IMPORTANT

Stolen checks from our 4:30 pm Christmas Mass were being cashed this past week. If your stolen check was cashed, please report it to your bank immediately and call Officer Kevin McEvoy at the San Bruno Police Department. If your check was cashed, please consider canceling your checking account and reopening a new one as a precautionary measure.
