Happy Mother's Day

When I was a young priest, my pastor had a book called One Hundred and One Sermons for Every Occasion. He read his Sunday sermons out of that book every week. One of the sermons was for Mother's Day.

It spoke about the "perfect" mother who was always like the Virgin Mary. She never made a mistake or had a cross word for anyone. Her home was always a perfect place where peace always reigned.

Real mothers are not like that. We know that they are real human beings, who despite their great love for their families, are not perfect. They do the best they can. Modern mothers are often juggling two jobs and trying to find time for all the things they are called on to do for their families. They sacrifice so much of their own needs for the sake of their family.

Mother's Day is just a commercial holiday, but does remind us not only to show our appreciation for our Mothers, but how we should all pray for the strength and help that all mothers (and grandmothers) need.

May God bless them in their challenging vocations.

May God also remember all our deceased Mothers and Grandmothers on this special day.

Fr. John L. Greene

If you had $70 million to benefit San Bruno, how would you spend it?

The San Bruno Community Foundation (SBCF) was established by the City Council to oversee $70 million in restitution funds resulting from the devastating 2010 gas pipeline explosion. The Foundation wants to hear from the San Bruno community before making investment and funding decisions. YOUR voice is needed in this conversation. Share your thoughts. Learn what others in the community are thinking.

Here is how you can participate:
