Halloween

When we were kids, I think we were all excited about Halloween. What could we pretend to be - a princess, a superhero, a zombie? The list was endless. We couldn't wait to dress up as one of our favorite characters. On the day after Halloween, however, we had to give up our fantasy, put away our costume and just enjoy our candy as our regular selves.

All Saint's Day calls all of us not to pretend to be Christians, not to disguise ourselves as Christians, but to be Christians not just for a day but everyday of our lives. In our Baptism God calls us to put Christ and truly be the children of God in name and in faith. By doing this we prepare ourselves to be one with all the Saints in eternal life.

So don't just fantasize about being a Christian someday. Let's truly try to be Saints everyday with God's strength and help.

Congratulations Bruce Chester

Bruce Chester, President of St. Robert's conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, is a recipient of the 2015 Ozanam Service Medallion. The award is named for Frederic Ozanam, founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Three Vincentians are recognized each year. Honorees are self-giving persons who have devoted superlative service without seeking personal recognition. Bruce certainly fits this criteria. He and his wife Sophia work tirelessly to help the needy of our community. Congratulations Bruce!

It's that time again for our Thanksgiving Tradition
 Please help us continue our Thanksgiving tradition as we share our blessings with those in need.

St. Vincent de Paul Society volunteers will be delivering Thanksgiving food bags to 50+ families living in San Bruno, and we will need items to insure a good traditional Thanksgiving dinner (items like cranberry sauce, chicken broth, turkey stuffing, mashed potato mixes, canned yams and canned pumpkin). The 7th grade students had a can drive which partially filled our pantry, but we always need more. Thank you Mrs. McNichols and all the students who participated in this worthy cause.

Please place your gifts in the baskets located on the altar steps.

Thank you on behalf of the less fortunate and SVDP Society.

Thanksgiving Mass will be at 9:00 am on Nov. 26th.
