LOVE

Today Saint. Paul talks about love as the greatest commandment. He might also have told us that it is sometimes the hardest commandment.

This reading is the all-time favorite scripture reading at weddings. Anyone who is or has been married knows how great it is to love someone and how hard it is to forgive those who have hurt us.

We really can't love or forgive without God's love and courage. God who is love, gives us the grace not to brood over our injuries but to begin again even when we are hurt. He gives us the power to hope and endure in love.

We know love can sometimes fail, but the God of love challenges us to grow in our love and forgiveness for each other.

Fr. John L. Greene
